

Week-End Brightened for Many Residents by Social Activities

BY ADALINE CORTEZ
DA 14876

It has been a gay week for many North Torrance residents. The Arthur Mosses of 17508 Ermanita Ave., attended the golden wedding anniversary celebration of their cousins, the David Trattner, at a dinner dance held at the Hillcrest Country Club.

Trattner, head of the Cancer Fund at UCLA, asked all his friends to donate money to this fund rather than bring gifts.

Florence and Everett Parker, of 16802 Ardath Ave., invited three couples for an evening of square dancing in their garage Saturday night.

They were Christine and Jerry Stockstill, Maggie and Bob Donely, and Janet and Howard Barnes.

Larry Brendigan, 16016 Illinois Ct., celebrated his 12 birthday hosting 30 friends at a barbecue followed by a "Bop" session.

He was literally showered with money-gifts from guests, plus clothes and records.

Invitations tucked in tiny, crisp gingham aprons, announced to curious members of the Stitch and Chatter Club that it was to be a hoe down.

Friday night, Verburg's Rumpus Room, straw on the floor, was the perfect background for fellows in jeans and girls in catkins, who spent the evening square dancing a round dancing. There were comic signs and amusing memoirs of country life at its most rugged, completed decorations.

An auction, "Nickel Mary's" was held and the bidders were so carried away by the excitement that several dollars were bid on 25 cent articles.

A buffet supper was served.

The Jerry Cunertys of 17039 Elgar Avenue, attended the presentation of Mr. Roberts, at the Sartu Playhouse in Hollywood Saturday night.

The William Sales, of 17002 Ainsworth Ave., motored to Lancaster to see the wild flower fields, then circled back through Riverside and on to dinner at Knott's Berry Farm. All this motoring was to get open road mileage on their lovely new luggage cream colored car, of course.

The Milton Hunters, of Falda Ave., just returned from a week's visit to her sister's in Albuquerque, N. Mex., and found themselves chaperoning a group of Bethel girls for a Palm Springs week end.

Mrs. Maurice Hatten was guest of honor at a baby shower held for her at the home of Mrs. C. P. DeLano, of 2704 W. 178th St., by the Stitch and Chatter Club, Tuesday night.

They presented her with a mattress for a baby bed, a play pen pad, and a nightie for herself.

Ruth and Johnny Miller, with Johnny Jr., Kay, and Walter, picked up at Exposition Park Sunday prior to visiting the Los Angeles County Museum.

Ruth and Peter Bruce, visited Lost Lake camp along the Colorado River near Blythe, Ariz. this weekend. They came back minus fish but David, Judy, and Peggy had a wonderful time.

Ann and Eddie Collins and Helen and Paul Clayton attended a pot luck dinner and square danced, hosted by Chuck and Marcella Le Force of Westchester, Saturday.

The Collins' daughter, Sally, now living at 17214 Della Ave., welcomed her husband, Eugene Edmonds, home for a 30 day leave before his departure for England.

The Arthur Moss, attended a theater party given by their charitable club. It was held at the Players Ring and the play was "My Three Angels."

Mrs. Lon Sprayberry, mother of Mrs. Wendell Towell, is recuperating at the Towell residence, 17512 Ermanita Ave., from surgery and a case of pleurisy.

Mrs. Merrill Hatch, of 2704 W. 178th St., is a busy lady these days. She is redecorating her home-new carpeting furnishings, the works.

Heading the list of children confined to their homes with cold diseases are Leslie, Jerry, and Gordon Rahmeyer, who weren't satisfied with just chicken pox. They had to get the mumps too.

Susan and Michael Williams and Michael P. Powers and B. Bryants each have three children down with chicken pox.

Ida Tardaguila, Booth Chairman for the Fuchsia Society of Torrance, announces that the club will have a booth at the California Flower Show in Long Beach.

A first aid course will begin at North Torrance Elementary within the next week or two.

Already the enrollment exceeds the minimum required but anyone interested may call Peggy Ball, DA 4-6781, for further information.

Cub Scouts of Pack 761-C visited a tuna cannery in Terminal Island Saturday and came away laden with souvenirs and statistics.

Adults supervising the group were Marge Cunerty, Ralph Gastelum, Doris Enright, Riley Buck, Lawrence Ball, and Mary Menard.

Ida Tardaguila, 17019 Casimir Avenue, is deep in plans for a ten year class reunion of the Class of 45 of Gardena High School.

All old grads are invited to a tea at her home June 26 from 3 to 6 with their husbands or wives.

Two gals who recently joined the ranks of the unemployed are Helen Holbrook and Lynn Hale. Helen was given a farewell gift of pantaloons with dainty blue ribbons which she proudly wears as she learns how to square dance.

June Birka-2719 W. 176th St. was married to Kenneth White in Las Vegas recently.
